

6 PERCH | 2844 MAGAZINE ST.

This 1860s house is full of objects in a quirky mix of periods and styles. In the front parlor: An opulent glass chandelier ($4,000), a bronze greyhound ($1,375) on a sheepskin rug by Bowron ($1,200) and cut-velvet-and-silk drapes by the in-house drapers. 504-899-2122 or perch-home.com.

5 GRACE | 3719 MAGAZINE ST.

At her three-month-old atelier-workshop, local artist Jamie Meeks sells her own pieces, like anthill-shaped white clay vessels that double as vases (from $150), as well as vintage finds like a huge wine-tasting table made from old barge wood ($2,800). 504-899-2307.

4 SPRUCE | 3713 MAGAZINE ST.

This new shop combines eco-ethics and great style. Owners Cheryl Murphy (left) and Nomita Joshi-Gupta stock EcoSmart fireplaces ($2,500) and Les Indiennes ayurvedic-dyed fabrics and offer green-lifestyle consulting. 504-265-0946 or sprucenola.com.

7 QUINCE | 2115 MAGAZINE ST.

Cream enamel cake stands from America Retold (from $24) and cute bluebird salt-and-pepper shakers ($14.50 per set) reflect the whimsical tastes of owner Kate Palmer. Brands like Sabre flatware and Arzberg porcelain are Quince exclusives. 504-556-9668.